

Dear TGA Handicap System Members

Welcome to TGA Handicap System, the only official handicap in Thailand. To make your handicap reflects your ability, you must

1. Submit your score card for every round of golf played
2. Fill your TGA membership number and print your name and last name as given in the application
3. Specify the tee ground used (if not, the most difficult tee ground will be used for handicap calculation)
4. Specify the date played (if not, TGA will not input that score card)
5. For tournament score card, please specify the event and mark " T "
6. Have your score card certified by your marker (and also print your marker name)

If you don't submit your score cards, your TGA handicap index will not reflect your ability and you may be disqualified from the tournament.

If you send the distorted score card, it is consider cheating. You may not only be disqualified from the tournament, but also will be terminated from TGA membership.

TGA will review your handicap every month base on your score card, which you submitted, and will send revised sticker handicap (to stick on the back of your handicap card) to you before the first date of the effective month.

To get handicap in the first time you must submit at least 6 score cards and your score cards count from the date that you played not more than 5 months.

TGA Handicap System will issue handicap in term of handicap index. You must convert your handicap index to course handicap base on the slope rating (for golf course that has slope rating). On golf course that does not has slope rating, you determine course handicap by round your handicap index.

When you participate in any tournament, you should check the conditions of those competitions in term of competitors' handicap. If the condition specifies the holding of certified handicap certified by TGA and the winner is not TGA Handicap System member or TGA Handicap System member but does not have handicap index yet, you can protest to the tournament committee.

TGA has been opened official website on 1st October. In order to serve every information about golf sport.
